

Growth of Green Bonds in India: A Trend Analysis

Dr. Varsha Paul
Rajiv Gandhi University, Arunachal Pradesh, India

Abstract:

Green bonds have emerged as a key instrument for financing environmentally sustainable projects. This study analyzes the growth trend of green bonds in India using secondary data from 2017–2024. The results show fluctuations in early years followed by strong growth after 2022 due to policy support and rising awareness